Located in the heart of York Beach, Maine, 39 Main Street presents a wonderful opportunity to own a spacious, 4 bedroom home full of character and potential. There is a bonus walk up attic if you'd like to expand even further. This classic turn of the century home features original architectural details including woodwork, hardwood floors, door knobs, push-button lighting and a pocket door. There are numerous upgrades throughout. 39 Main Street has both the charm of a coastal New England town and the convenience of just a short stroll to Short Sands Beach, Ellis Park, all the shops, restaurants and attractions of downtown York Beach. This home provides the perfect foundation for those looking to invest in a property with incredible potential in one of Maine's most sought after communities. The kitchen, dining and living areas provides ample space for gatherings, while the large front yard provides a blank canvas for outdoor living - perfect for gardening, relaxation, or play. Whether you're enjoying a cup of coffee on the front porch or hosting a BBQ, this property offers the opportunity for a relaxed, welcoming lifestyle. Need more than one house to host friends and family? Current zoning allows for an additional home and garage to be built on the same lot. There is the possibility of further land division with planning board approval. Additional land with existing detached garage is available at additional cost. Bring your vision
